President's Message

The Fair will look very different this year as the Arena is temporarily closed. We will be outside in the ball field. Exhibits will be in tents. We have taken some of the classes out and have a shorten version of the other classes. The 4-H livestock shows will continue as usual outside.

This year the pies will be made at home and will be auctioned as normal.

A big THANK YOU to our amazing volunteers, community partners, sponsors, exhibitors and fairgoers to make the Fair this year a success!

Find us at www.rocklynfallfair.com and on Facebook.

See you at the Fair.

Dianne Booker

Ambassador Message

Hi! My name is Grace Den Haan, and I am so proud to represent the Rocklyn Fall Fair as Ambassador.

I had so much fun at the 2025 Fall Fair. I handed out ribbons, competed in the ice cream eating contest, and showed my calf in the 4H show. I talked to lots of people and represented the Rocklyn agriculture society at the District 10 meeting. I had lots of fun learning to line dance.

It was great to also attend the Farmerettes play at Woodford Hall with other ambassadors, celebrating women in agriculture.

I hope to see everyone out at the 2026 Fair!

Grace Den Haan

Volunteer and Community Service Hours

The Rocklyn Agricultural Society is pleased to aid students in need of hours to fulfill their commitment to the “Secondary Students Community Involvement Program”. Students are welcome to come and earn volunteer hours at events with us throughout the year. For more information contact the school guidance office or any Rocklyn Agricultural Society Member.

Do you want to help?

We can use someone just like you! We are looking for supporters and volunteers throughout the year. Whether you can spare an hour a day or a few days of your time, we would love to have you join our team. Any age, any background. You will be appreciated. Please get in touch with our members and or executive. You will not regret it!

Rules and Regulations Governing - the Rocklyn Agricultural Society

The Directors shall have the right to interpret each and every rule. These internal rules and regulations shall be posted in the publication of the annual Fair Book.

1. The annual membership fee will be determined at the Annual Meeting and a membership number may be procured from the Secretary. Each Exhibitor must purchase a membership ticket before making entries with the exception of those entering Tots to Teens Prize List, Class 14, for which there will be no fee charged or retained.
2. An admission charge will be determined at the Annual Meeting to be paid by all persons not being members. It was determined to be $5.00. Public school children are free. This Society will not be responsible for any injury to person, livestock, or vehicles while on the grounds on either day of the fair.
3. Exhibitors of all livestock must bring the animal forward when called for by the Judges or Directors from the ring, otherwise they will not be considered, and no animal will be allowed to exhibit in more than one class, except when ordered by Judges to change to another class and specials. Entry tickets to be attached or presented to the Director in charge.
4. Every animal, fowl, product or chattel exhibited must be the bonafide property of the Exhibitor for at least 30 days prior to the Fair. Persons found guilty of fraud shall forfeit all prizes awarded to him/her and be liable to conviction and may be prohibited from exhibiting for one year.
5. All articles intended for competition must be entered in strict accordance with the Prize List.
6. In all kinds of grain, vegetables, fruit, dairy products, manufactured articles, ladies work and fine arts, any person shall not be allowed to enter more than one specimen.
7. All kinds of grain and seed must positively be the growth of the current year.
8. No person or persons shall be allowed to interfere with the Judges while engaged in making their awards, either by conversation or any pretence, under penalty of forfeiting all prizes to which they may be otherwise entitled and will be promptly excluded from the competition. Judges or officers are requested to report any breach of this rule to the Executive Committee of the Exhibition.
9. Any Exhibitor lodging protest must, make it in writing, and deliver it to the Secretary within a week of the cause of protest, and it must be accompanied by a deposit or $10.00 which sum shall for forfeited to the said Society if the said protest is not sustained.
10. No person or persons shall be allowed to display any badges or prize tickets secured at any Fair until such time as the awards have been made.
11. No person shall be allowed to ride horses or ponies on the show grounds faster than a walk, except in the Exhibition ring, under penalty of removal from the exhibition grounds.
12. Diligence will be used by the officers of the Society to ensure the safety of articles sent to the Exhibition and to prevent loss or injury to these exhibits, but the owners themselves must assume responsibility, and should any animal or articles be injured, lost or stolen, the Directors will render all possible assistance to recover the same, but will not make good value, or be otherwise liable.
13. All members winning prizes to the amount of $10.00 or over, an amount to be determined at the annual meeting will be retained as membership for the following year with the exception of all Class 14 entrants.
14. The Treasurer will be prepared to issue cheques (1 per family) for prize money on or before September 30th. All cheques must be presented for payment before "October 31st". Errors, if any, must be corrected before October 31st.
15. Members presenting their Membership Tickets or Passes will be allowed to take in stock entered for competition.
16. All 4-H projects must be presented by an Ontario 4-H Registered member to show at the fair.
17. No dealer in candies and fruits, hucksters or petty traders, shall be allowed to traffic except on previous approval and agreed payment by the Board of Directors.
18. All kinds of gambling devices, throwing balls, and gambling of every description within the meaning of the Agricultural and Horticultural Organizations Act, and amendments thereof, will be strictly prohibited; and exhibitors are requested to read the Rules and Regulations and comply there within when making entries.
19. All entries and exhibits for the Hall must be in and placed before 12:00 noon on the Friday preceding the fair. Judging immediately after.
20. The Society reserves the right to pay the prize money in full or a percentage of the prize money. The latter course would only be resorted to in case of inclement weather or other severe setbacks.
21. Entries in the hall MUST NOT be removed any earlier than 9:00 pm on the day of the fair, or risk prize money being forfeited.
22. All classes 4-14 reserve the right to substitute 1st place cash prize with a donated gift or voucher. In classes 4-14, the Committee has the right to split the class into groups with entries exceeding 10 per class.
23. Receipts will be issued upon request to our contributors and sponsors.
24. The Society executive reserves the right to ask directors, exhibitors, and members of the public to leave the fair events when there has been a disturbance and/or altercation.

Class 18: 4-H Calf Club - Conformation

*IMPORTANT SHOW ORDER - Rocklyn 4-H Club members will start our club show with Showmanship, followed by Club Supreme Show Person. This will be followed by the Invitational Showmanship and Invitational Supreme Showmanship. After the Showmanship classes are complete, all members (club & invitational) will show together in the conformation classes. At the end of these classes the Rocklyn Club members will be asked to step forward to be recognized. The top Rocklyn member will receive the prize from the listed sponsor. The top 2 club members of each conformation class will return for our Club Champion Beef & Dairy animals. For the Invitational Beef & Dairy Champion animals, the top 2 (Rocklyn Club or Invitational) will return for the Champion Beef & Dairy animal. If there are less than 6 Invitational animals, the leaders reserve the right to decide to have them show with the club in showmanship. If this is decided, the top two Rocklyn members, in the line up will compete for Grand and Reserve Show person. The top two (Rocklyn Club or Invitational) will compete for Grand and Reserve Grand Show person. All Ontario 4H Calf Clubs are invited to participate in this show.
